As the worlds oldest continuous civilization and most populous country, with its remarkable history, rich culture, diverse ethic groups, and fastest growing economy, China got an unprecedented level of world-wide attention today. More and more new and interesting designs with the unique artistic charm that can not be regarded as the products of direct Western influence have been emerging. All of the amazing works featured here were selected from the representatives of the most famous and excellent designers in China who have been leading the trend of the contemporary Chinese design.
