Entrepreneurs blaze new paths, start where they are, are self-taught, take risks; while others turn back, they move forward, and fear doesn't deter them but rather spurs them forward. This book is about how to take on your biggest dreams, about entrepreneurs and what makes them different, and is directed as much to those who are already on their path as to those who would like to start. Its 30 chapters one for each day of the month contain inspiring stories, funny situations, and reflection questions that will keep you hooked from day one. You can even write all of your ideas and plans in the Personal Diary section at the end of each chapter. Through reflection on each topic, you will discover your own path toward your goals.
