215pp , ABOUT THE AUTHOR :: Anthony de Mello SJ (1931--1987) famous for his books and lectures on spirituality , which mixed the Judeo - Christian doctrine with Buddhism Jesuit Priest. He was convicted of a Notification on the writings of Father Anthony De Mello , SJ , published by the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith on 24 June 1998..De Mello was born in Bombay (India) in 1931. Feeling the call for priesthood, began his studies at the Jesuit , in Poona. It elapsed this important stage of his life , graduated in psychology career that followed in the United States, according to the suggestions and advice of Father Mann , provincial of the Order. He began directing retreats for young novices; which were the starting point for his public career as director of souls , work that would continue throughout his life . Was based on the methodology , principles and strength of the Exercises of Ignatius of Loyola , who had learned in Spain . But he had added his own special ingredients personality ; and were numerous withdrawals for the renewal of the spirit. He participated in the Charismatic Renewal Movement , with great intensity. Both experiences were the basis for what would come next . He died at Fordham University , of a massive heart attack the night of his first day in New York on June 1, 1987 and three months before his fifty- six years. His remains rest in the cemetery of the Church of San Pedro , in the city of Bandra (India) , where he was baptized. Following his death in 1998, the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith (led by the then Cardinal Ratzinger) investigated his writings and described some of them as "incompatible" with Catholic faith . Some editions of his books carry a sheet of caution stating: ' The books written by Father Anthony de Mello were written in a multi-religious context to help the followers of other religions , agnostics and atheists in their spiritual quest , and the author pretended to be an instruction manual on the C
